one entailed extra expenditure of Rs. 1 crore.

No tenders were invited as the system was not prevalent in the former units, namely, Ganesh Flour Mills and Amritsar Oil Works. HVOC was incorporated as a public sector undertaking with the above two companies in April, 1984. It took sometime to revise the practices and the tenders were first time issued in May, 1985.

By the time, the incident came to light, concrened officers had retired from the Undertaking.
